AND HIS TIME.

By EMILE MICHEL. Edited and Prefaced by FRED-ERICK WEDMORE. Richly Illustrated. With 80 Plates and 300 Reproductions of Rembrandt's Works. 2 vols., Royal Svo. $15.00.

"One of the most magnificent books of the year."--"A monumental work. In its present form the book is one for all time. It is the most complete survey of the work of a single artist which the world has yet seen.

THE ONE

I KNEW THE

BEST OF ALL.

A Memory of the Mind of a Child. By Mrs. BURNETT. Fully Illustrated by R. B. BIRCH. 12mo, $2.00.

"It has the engaging candor and transparency of al sincere autobiography, yet it is revealed with such ex-quisite delicacy and absence of self-consciousness we for-get that the child heroine is Mrs. Burnett in petto."— Mrs. Kate Douglas Wiggin. SOME ARTISTS

AT THE FAIR.

Fully Illustrated by the Authors. Svo. $1.25

The contributors of both text and illustrations to volume are F. Hopkinson Smith, Will H. Low, W. Ha ton Gibson, Frank D. Millet, and J. A. Mitchell. I of these artists approaches the subject from a diffeoint of view, and gives his impressions both of human spectacle and of the aesthelic aspects of the with characteristic candor and individuality.

A Story of the War. By THOMAS NELSON PAGE, Il-lustrated by C. S. Reinhart. Small follo, $1.59.

By JACOB A. RIIS. Ilustrated 12mo, 50 cents.

"These stories are based upon the author's observa-tions of real life in the tenement-house districts, and de-rive their power and their pathos from the simplicity and idelity with which he has portrayed the characters and portrayed the scenes."—Christian at Work.

BARBARY COAST.

By Dr. HENRY M. FIELD, With illustrations. Crown Svo. $2.00.

Dr. Field's narrative describes a leisurely journey to many interesting points in Morocco, Algiers, and Tunts, and combines, in the popular style characteristic of the author's other books of travel, entertaining incidents of personal experience and adventure, illuminating comments upon native customs, and pertinent historical information.

THE LAND OF POCO TIEMPO.

By CHARLES F. LUMMIS. Illustrated. 8vo, $2.50. "These sketches are picturesque, poetic, glowing in cal color, and have a genuine ethnological value show familiarity with the country, the people, and their ditions."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

WITH THACKERAY IN AMERICA.

By EYRE CROWE, A. R. A. With 121 Illustrations from sketches by the author. Small 4to, $2.00. "It is a book that no lover of Thackeray will be will-ing to leave unread. Not only is it interesting for the near view it gives of the author of 'Vanity Pair,' but for the picture it paints of the United States forty years ago,"-Critic.
